IMPORTANT FACTS: Please read these notes before completing the proposal
Your duty of Disclosure:	Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the INSURANCE CONTRACTS ACT 1984 to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision on whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or re- instate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That diminish the risk to be undertaken by the insurer; • That is of common knowledge; • That your insurer knows of, or in the ordinary course of business ought to know ; • As to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.
Non Disclosure:	If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim, or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure, or disclosure, is fraudulent the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its commencement.
Subrogation Rights:	If you have entered into an agreement which excludes or limits your right to recover part or all of any loss or damage from another party, we will not cover you for that loss or damage under the policy.
Third Party Interests:	You must inform us of the interests of all third parties (e.g. financiers, lessors) to be covered by this insurance. We will protect their interests only if you have informed us of them and they are noted on the Schedule.
Privacy Policy:	AIB Insurance Brokers complies with the Federal Privacy Act and its National Privacy Principles (NPPs), which set out standards for the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information. For further information relating to our NPPs please refer to http://www.aibinsurance.com.au/privacy.htm

It is important the signatory/signatories to the Declaration is/are fully aware of the scope of this insurance so that all questions can be answered. If in doubt, please contact your insurance broker since non-disclosure may affect an insured's right of recovery under the policy or lead to it being voided.

An Important Notice to the Applicant

'Claims Made' Contracts of Insurance

This means that the policy responds to:-

- claims first made against the insured during the policy period and notified to CGU Professional Risks Insurance during that policy period, providing that the insured was not aware, at any time prior to the policy inception, of circumstances which would have alerted a reasonable person in the insured's position that a claim may be made against the insured; and
- 'claims circumstances' notified pursuant to Section 40 (3) of the Insurance Contracts Act which states:

'where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance cover provided by the contract'.

After policy expiry, no new claims can be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the policy period.

If during the policy period you become aware of circumstances which a reasonable person in your position would consider may give rise to a claim, and which you fail to notify to us during the policy period, we may not cover you under a subsequent policy for any claim which arises from these circumstances.

When completing the proposal you are obliged to report and provide full details of all circumstances of which you are aware and which a reasonable person in your position would consider may give rise to a claim.

It is important that you make proper disclosure (see Duty of Disclosure, below) so that your cover under any new policy with us is not compromised.

Duty of Disclosure

Before entering into a contract of general insurance, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act, to disclose to us every matter that you are aware of, or could reasonably be expected to be aware of, that is relevant to our decision about insuring you and if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose these matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter -

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

You should note that your duty continues after the proposal form has been completed until the policy is entered into, i.e. until the date we receive instructions to bind cover.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or may cancel the policy. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning. It is therefore vital that you enquire of all entities comprising the insured, including senior staff, before completing the proposal form and before you sign any declaration confirming no change in the information disclosed.

Retroactive Liability

The proposed insurance may be limited by a retroactive date either stated in the schedule or endorsed onto the policy. Where the retroactive cover provided by the proposed policy is subject to such a date, then the policy does not cover any claim arising from actual or alleged act, error, omission or conduct occurring prior to such retroactive date.

Average Provision

One of the insuring provisions of the proposed insurance may provide that where the amount required to dispose of a claim exceeds the limit of the sum insured in the policy then CGU Professional Risks Insurance shall be liable only for a proportion of the total costs and expenses. This shall be the same proportion of the total expenses as the policy limit bears to the total amount required to dispose of the claim.

Surrender of Waiver of any Right of Contribution or Indemnity

If another person or company is liable to compensate you or hold you harmless for part or all of any loss or damage otherwise covered by our policy, but you agree with that person or company (either before or after the inception of our policy) that you would not seek to recover any loss or damage from them, we will not cover you for this loss or damage.
